Retreat to the Ozarks

About 10 miles south of Branson, tucked into the Ozark Mountains near Dogwood Canyon Nature Park, you'll find Big Cedar Lodge, a luxury resort with fishing, horseback riding, trail walks and golf. Now, there's another lure: an 18,000-square-foot rustic spa set among the trees along Table Rock Creek.

There are 11 treatment rooms with fireplaces, plus open-air showers, steam chambers, saunas, hot spas and a shower room with a private deck complete with a hot spa and stone fireplace. An indoor pool is surrounded by stone walls and timber ceilings.

Services include massages, facials, body treatments and an Ozark rain experience, along with excursions including an Ozark retreat. There is a full-service salon, too, and a bridal suite. Stays can be booked in a private log cabin, a suite, cottage or villa, or room. Check the website for more details and to make reservations.
