

WORMAN HISTORY

Harry Worman was a successful business man who worked his way up the ladder of Frisco Railroad in Springfield MO, from a machinist position in 1905, to Chief Operating Officer of the company in 1932.

The Worman House was built in the early 1920's as a summer home for Harry and his young bride, Dorothy. When it was built, the home was a marvel, with running water, electricity, and even indoor plumbing. (Most Ozarkers waited another 30 years before these "new-fangled" conveniences became part of everyday life.) The beams in the ceilings and foot-thick walls are actually railroad ties, like those used by the Frisco railroad where Harry worked.

Though the home was a "wilderness retreat," if you visited in the 1920's, you might be surprised at how elegant the home and lifestyle was. Guests dressed up for dinner each night, and food and wines were brought in from Springfield.

Meticulously restored to its original beauty, we think Harry Worman would be pleased to know that guests are still able to enjoy refreshing beverages while delighting in sweeping views of Table Rock Lake at Harry's Cocktail Lounge & Bar.
