TOP OF THE ROCK

ozarks heritage preserve

This landmark first for the region is home to remarkable restaurants, championship golf and extraordinary attractions. Tour through a scenic cave on our Lost Canyon Cave & Nature Trail in an electric cart or on a guided trail walk. Come face-to-face with amazing prehistoric dioramas, Civil War and American West relics, fine art and one of the most significant collections of Native American artifacts ever assembled at the Ancient Ozarks Natural History Museum. Marvel at the wonder of the geographic anomaly, the sinkhole, now known as the Cathedral of Nature. Cap off your experience with our signature sunset cannon firing ceremony (offered seasonally).

Dining & Shopping

Enjoy the grandest views in the Ozarks as you dine in some of the most spectacular settings imaginable. Arnie's Barn, a 150-year-old barn, was relocated from Arnold Palmer's hometown and features Mexican cuisine with an Ozarks flair. For traditional American favorites and stunning lake views, visit Osage Restaurant or Buffalo Bar. Waiting for a table or just want to relax with family and friends? Wine and spirits are also available at the End of the Trail All-American Wine Cellar. After dinner, visit Arnie's Barn General Store, the perfect place to snag something to remember your visit to Top of the Rock.

Payne's Valley 19th Hole
Designed by Johnny Morris

Payne's Valley
Golf Digest's 2021 Best New Public Course in America

Payne's Valley Course

Paying tribute to Ozarks native and World Golf Hall of Fame member, Payne Stewart, Payne's Valley is the first public-access golf course designed by 82-time PGA TOUR winner Tiger Woods and Woods-led golf course design firm, TGR Design. Payne's Valley stands out with its inviting layout, pristine water features, large fairways and greens, and spectacular 19th hole... the Big Rock at Payne's Valley™ by Johnny Morris.

Ozarks National
Golfweek's 2024 #1 Best Course You Can Play in Missouri

Ozarks National Course

Measuring 7,036 yards from the back tees, Ozarks National is Missouri's first-and-only golf course designed by architect duo Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw. The 18-hole layout represents the terrain of the Ozarks with beautiful views and features challenging carries with a variety of visually appealing approach shots that are highlighted by the native habitat.

Practice Facilities

Top of the Rock Course

Top of the Rock Golf Course, a 9-hole par-3 Signature Design by Jack Nicklaus, was the first ever par-3 course included in a professional championship. Perched high above Table Rock Lake, the peaceful waterfalls, wandering creeks, and bass-filled ponds are a celebration of nature. The pro shop, located in Arnie's Barn, has everything needed for a day on the course.

Buffalo Ridge Course

This 18-hole championship course designed by Tom Fazio and visionary conservationist Johnny Morris, showcases the beauty of the Ozarks with natural rock formations, caves, creeks, lakes and waterfalls while herds of roaming bison graze on the native prairie grasses that surround Buffalo Ridge.

Mountain Top Course

Johnny Morris teamed up with World Golf Hall of Fame legend Gary Player to create Mountain Top, a world-class 13-hole par-3 course that delivers an unparalleled experience for all skill levels. The walking-only course routes through unforgettable rock formations and dramatic views of the Ozarks.

Practice Facilities

Big Cedar Lodge offers world-class practice facilities for both experienced and beginner golfers. The driving ranges feature an unending amount of open space ready for endless play. Course-style chipping greens and short game areas are also available, along with several putting greens, including a 9-hole Himalayan-style putting course designed by Missouri native Tom Watson.

DOGWOOD CANYON NATURE PARK

at big cedar lodge

Dogwood Canyon Nature Park is a 10,000-acre nature lover's paradise inspired by Johnny Morris' commitment to conservation.

Owned and managed by the nonprofit Dogwood Canyon Foundation, the park offers guests the opportunity to truly experience the unspoiled beauty of Mother Nature. You can explore the park by horseback, wildlife tram, private tour, bicycle or on foot.

Powered by Little Indian Creek, a salvaged grain mill extends into an artifact hall and stunning restaurant. The Nature & Conservation Center provides interactive classrooms and connects to a two-story treehouse built by Animal Planet's Treehouse Masters. Little Indian Stables offer the perfect place to visit the horses before setting out on a leisurely trail ride.

From a streamside morning catching a trout, to an afternoon lunch on the patio with friends, Dogwood Canyon Nature Park is the perfect place to make lasting memories. Call or visit the website to learn more about this national treasure.

Located just a short drive west of Big Cedar near the Missouri/Arkansas state line.
